

*Lincoln Intermediate Unit
Instructional Technology Services*

Presents

Creating Inquiry Activities with Primary Sources

Sponsored in part by the Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources Eastern Region Program, coordinated by Waynesburg University

The goals of this grant program are to:

- Provide an online and classroom-based professional development program;
- Increase the ability of educators to design student-centered learning experiences that use best instructional practices;
- Implement standards-based learning experiences that improve students' critical thinking abilities; and
- Provide a community of educators with educational resources of the highest quality.
- Provide two face-to-face professional development workshops and online collaboration through Keystone Commons for 15 teachers (one per district)

Audience: K-12 Social Studies and Language Arts teachers
(one teacher per district)

Dates/Times: September 23 and December 15, 2010 and online work
9:00 am – 4:00 pm, Registration 8:30 am

Location: Lincoln Intermediate Unit, New Oxford

Fee: No Charge (includes AM refreshments, lunch and materials)
Substitute coverage up to $100 for each day
Stipend of $200 at the completion of the program

Instructors: Ann Johnston and Sue Sheffer

Registration: please email Ann Johnston or Pat Barker plbarker@iu12.org
We will need the name of the teacher, their email address and their role/title in the district.

If you have any questions, please contact Ann Johnston.
(624-6449; amjohnston@iu12.org)

Act 48 hours will be awarded.